An Academic Performance Plan is a roadmap to assist you with your studies, as you have been identified as not making satisfactory course progress and/or in need of additional support. The objective is to help you get 'back on track' and/or return to a full-time study load. It is a mandatory guide which you have to comply with and will provide useful information to relevant University programs and services, while giving you the tools to successfully complete your course.

Other, please specify:

Please explain the reason(s) for your previous poor performance. You need to provide both academic and non academic reasons.

Academic reasons:

My studying schedule was poor and I was not attending all of my classes. i also did not go to any of the pass classes available.

Non academic reasons:

At the time i was working a job that required me to do up to 12 hour shifts this affected my ability to study and properly learn the content.

What actions will you take to improve your academic performance in the future? (List at least 3 actions)

Ensure I create a good study plan, have a good schedule where i give myself enough time to do the work and attend all classes, lectures, etc. Going to the pass sessions with further assist in my learning and also working less hours will give me more time to study.
